SUB-FUND SUITABILITY
WHO IS THE SUB-FUND SUITABLE FOR? The ILP Sub-Fund is only suitable for investors for whom the investment does not represent a complete investment program, understand the degree of risk involved, can tolerate a medium level of volatility and believe that the investment is suitable based on investment objectives and finance needs. Investment in the ILP sub-fund should be viewed as medium to long term. It is important to remember that, as with most investments, the value of your investments is not guaranteed and can go down as well as up. Therefore, we suggest that you only invest money that can be committed for the medium to long term. You should also bear in mind that securities held within a fund may not be denominated in the currency of that fund, so unit prices may fall purely on account of exchange rate fluctuations. Please note that Friends Provident International Limited ('FPIL') investment products are intended for medium to long term investment and are not therefore designed for early surrender. If you do surrender early, a product surrender charge may be applied. Please note that the earlier you terminate your plan, the more you may lose. Investment Strategy

-The Investment objective of the underlying fund is to provide investors with long-term capital appreciation.

-It will seek to achieve this by investing primarily in a portfolio of global equities. The underlying fund seeks long-term capital appreciation through investment in companies that the investment manager deems to have innovation at the core of their business, i.e. companies which create or embrace new technology, ideas and processes in order to drive their growth.

- The equity or equity related securities in which the underlying fund may invest include common stocks, preferred stocks, securities convertible into common stocks, rights and warrants. No more than 5% of the Net Asset Value of the underlying fund will be invested in warrants. The securities in which the underlying fund may invest will be listed or traded on a Recognised Exchange.

-The underlying fund may invest in excess of 20% of its Net Asset Value in emerging markets.

-Under normal market conditions the underlying fund intends to invest in at least 20 stocks. The investment manager may invest the underlying fund's assets in securities of companies with a wide range of market capitalisations and in companies domiciled throughout the world. The bulk of the underlying fund's investments will however be concentrated in liquid shares of companies with a market capitalisation in excess of US$500m, however, the underlying fund may invest in liquid shares of companies with a market capitalisation of less than US$500m.

-The underlying fund may invest in China A shares listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange via the Shanghai Hong Kong Stock Connect scheme, or the Shenzhen Stock Exchange via the Shenzhen Hong Kong Stock Connect scheme.

-The financial derivative instruments which the underlying fund may utilise includes futures, options and forward foreign exchange contracts for efficient portfolio management purposes, hedging purposes, to reduce portfolio risk or to obtain in a more efficient way exposure that would otherwise be obtained by direct investment in equity securities in accordance with the investment objective and policies.

KEY RISKS

WHAT ARE THE KEY RISKS OF THIS INVESTMENT?

-The value of an investment is not guaranteed and can go up and down depending on performance. You could get back less than you have paid in. At times, the ILP Sub-Fund may (Subject to the Appointed Actuary's agreement and provisions allowed for in the Policy Conditions) need to change the way its price is calculated, to ensure that those moving in and out of the ILP Sub-Fund are fairly treated. This can have a negative effect on the ILP Sub-Fund's price and performance.

-Fund managers have the ability, in exceptional circumstances, to suspend trading in their Funds for as long as necessary. When this occurs, we will need to delay the redeeming or switching of units in the relevant Fund. You may not be able to access your money during this period. These risk factors may cause you to lose some or all your investment:	Product Summary for further information.
Market and Credit Risks
Market risk: Some of the Recognised Exchanges in which the underlying fund may invest may be less well-regulated than those in developed markets and may prove to be illiquid, insufficiently liquid or highly volatile from time to time. This may affect the price at which the underlying fund may liquidate positions to meet redemption requests or other funding requirements. Credit risk: There can be no assurance that issuers of the securities or other instruments in which the underlying fund invests will not be subject to credit difficulties leading to the loss of some or all of the sums invested in such securities or instruments or payments due on such securities or instruments. It will also be exposed to a credit risk in relation to the counterparties with whom it transacts or place margin or collateral in respect of transactions in financial derivative instruments and may bear the risk of counterparty default.	-Refer to 'Risk Factors' section of the underlying fund's Prospectus and Supplement for further information on risks of the underlying fund.
Liquidity Risks
Liquidity risk: Not all securities or instruments invested in by the underlying fund will be listed or rated and hence liquidity may be low. Moreover, the accumulation and disposal of holdings in some investments may be time consuming and may need to be conducted at unfavourable prices. The underlying funds may also encounter difficulties in disposing of assets at their fair price due to adverse market conditions leading to limited liquidity.	-Refer to 'Risk Factors' section of the underlying fund's Prospectus and Supplement for further information on risks of the underlying fund.
Product-Specific Risks
Concentration risk: The underlying fund may invest in specific geographic regions or sectors and hold a relatively small number of stocks as compared to many other funds. This may make the underlying fund's performance more volatile than would be the case if it had a diversified investment portfolio. Investment in equity securities risk: The underlying fund may invest in equity securities traded on Recognised Exchanges. Equity securities will be subject to risks associated with such investments, including fluctuations in market prices, adverse issuer or market information and the fact that equity securities are subordinate in the right of payment to other corporate securities, including debt securities. The value of these securities varies with the performance of the respective issuers and movements in the equity markets generally. As a result, the underlying fund may suffer losses if it invests in equity securities of issuers where performance falls below market expectations or if equity markets in general decline or the underlying fund has not hedged against such a general decline. Stock Connect Scheme risk: The underlying fund may invest in China A shares listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange via the Shanghai Hong Kong Stock Connect scheme, or the Shenzhen Stock Exchange via the Shenzhen Hong Kong Stock Connect scheme (the "Stock Connect Scheme"). Specific risks related with the Stock Connect Scheme include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Stock Connect Securities: There can be no assurance that an active trading market for such Stock Connect securities will develop or be maintained. If spreads on Stock Connect securities are wide, this may adversely affect the underlying fund's ability to dispose of such securities at the desired price. If the underlying fund needs to sell Stock Connect securities at a time when no active market for them exists, the price it receives for its Stock Connect securities - assuming it is able to sell them - is likely to be lower than the price received if an active market did exist, and thus the performance of the underlying fund may be adversely affected depending on the underlying fund's size of investment in securities through the Stock Connect. - Quota Limitations: The Stock Connect scheme ("Connect Scheme") is subject to quota limitations which may restrict the underlying fund's company's ability to invest in China A-Shares through the programme on a timely basis and as a result, the 	-Refer to 'Risk Factors' section of the underlying fund's Prospectus and Supplement for further information on risks of the underlying fund.

underlying fund's ability to access the China A-Shares market (and hence to pursue its investment strategy) may be adversely affected.
